- The Co-operation Minister was presiding over a meeting with the officers of Haryana State Cooperative Supply and Marketing Federation Limited, (HAFED) here, late last evening.
- At the meeting, he directed the officers that as the procurement season would start from April 15, therefore the accommodation arrangements for all workers engaged in transportation, etc. during this season should be ensured. Apart from this adequate arrangement should make for the food and other facilities of these workers so that there is no difficulty in the functioning of grain transportation etc. during the procurement season.
- He further directed the officers that all workers engaged in the work of transportation etc. should be stopped at warehousing, etc., and problems of their food and lodging should be resolved immediately.
- During the meeting, Dr. Banwari Lal said that the HAFED products are being put up for sale at Vita booths so that the people of the State can buy these products through these booths during the lockdown. Similarly, during the lockdown in the State, the supply of flour and mustard oil will not be stopped and it should also be ensured that there is no shortage of any essential commodity.
- The Minister while giving directions to the officers concerned said that adequate stock of food items should be kept so that people do not face any problem. He said asked the people of the State not to panic during the lockdown as elaborate arrangements have been made by the State Government and there will be no shortage of any kind.
- The Minister appealed to the people of the State and said that they should maintain social distancing as we have to break the virus circle. In the meeting, the senior officers of HAFED were also present.
