DESCRIPTION

Portal launched to help stranded foreign tourists and NRIs

Jaipur, 2 April . World Health Organization and United Nations have declared CORONA Virus Infection as a Pandemic. Govt. of India and State Government are making all possible efforts for the safety of people and for prevention of spread of Corona Virus infection. In this context, for addressing the problems of foreign travellers stranded anywhere in India and for helping them reach their native country, Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India has launched a portal "<http://strandedinindia.com>" (<http://strandedinindia.com>).

Foreign and NRI Tourists can submit their location and grievance on this portal and can also contact on Helpline Number/ Control Room (COVID-19 Helpline Number: +91- 11- 23978046 or 1075, Helpline Email ID: ncov2019@gov.in, ncov2019@gov.com). Control Room is functional for 24 hours.

Based on the details provided by the foreign travellers on the portal, the State Tourism Department officials are contacting them and rendering guidance and support on case to case basis.
