

Raipur : Big News : Chief Minister Shri Baghel gives big relief to officers and employees

Annual increment will be given on due date : Salary increment arrears to be given six months later

Raipur, 02

Chief Minister Mr. Bhupesh Baghel has given great relief to the officers and employees of the State Government. Due to the Corona crisis, the increment of state government officials and employees was delayed. Chief Minister has given instructions to restore it. The Chief Minister has informed the officers and employees of the state government, who get the increment on July 1, will receive it on the same date, but arrears of increment from July to December will be paid in lump sum in the coming month of January. Similarly, the officers and employees whose salary increase was scheduled for January 1, they will get increment on due date of January 1 and their arrears amount will be paid after six months in the month of July.

It is noteworthy that in view of the financial situation of the state in the Corona crisis, the annual increment of officers and employees was delayed by the Finance Department till further orders. The delegation of Chhattisgarh Employees-Officers Federation met Chief Minister Mr. Baghel at his residence office here today, under the leadership of Provincial Convenor Mr. Kamal Verma and urged him to give increment to the officers and employees on the due date. Considering this demand of the employee organizations, the Chief Minister has given his consent to give increment on the scheduled date and pay its arrears amount after six months. Additional Chief Secretary, Finance Department, Shri Amitabh Jain was present on the occasion.
