HSSLC 2020 EXAMINATION POSTPONED

The Mizoram Board of School Education has decided to postpone all examinations and evaluations related to Higher Secondary School Leaving Certificate Examination (HSSLC) 2020 till further notice. The notification issued by the Board this evening on the matter cited the pandemic COVID-19 as the reason. The notification also mentioned that this step was taken to prevent any outbreak of the pandemic in the interest of public health and safety.

All Centre Superintendents have been instructed not to collect the question papers on subjects still due for examinations from banks/treasury offices/police stations. Answer scripts of examinees on the subjects for which examinations have already been conducted must deposit them to the respective places where the question papers are being kept in custody
